BAD+, Bordeaux Art & Design Fair, to Open Its Second Edition

BAD +, (an abbreviation of Bordeaux + Art + Design,) is the first fair that connects art, design, and art de vivre.

SHARE THIS STORY

Founded by Jean-Daniel Compain, a fair veteran who already oversaw FIAC and Paris photo, BAD+ will occur in the famed vineyard region of Bordeaux. The fair will gather an array of national and international galleries, including Joan Gaspar Gallery (Barcelona), Gallery Soview (Accra, Ghana), as well as Parisian Inger Gallery, Galerie Sarto, and Rabouan Moussion. This year's event will focus on art from Spain, including works by Pablo Picasso, Joan Miro, Antoni Tapies, Eduardo Arranz-Bravo, Joan Pere Viladecans, Eduardo Arroyo and Jose Cháfer.

The fair will also feature various young contemporary artists, including Mireille Blanc, Juliette Minchin, Massinissa Selmani, Maria Appleton, Kara Chin, Thomas van Rijs, Pierre Tual, Hala Schoukair, Evangelia Kranioti, and Trúc-Anh. The BAD+ Art fair will run from May 4th until May 7th, 2023. The main event will be held at Hangar 14th, while the offsite events will be spread around the city and the area's famous vineyards.
